Term: Autumn Date: Friday 18th November

Dear Parents/Carers,

Message from Mrs Travi

It's Be Bright Day! It's so wonderful to see all the children dressed up in bright clothes to raise awareness for Road Safety.

Their lessons this week have been centred around Anti-Bullying and Road Safety (please see class blogs for more information), so please make sure you ask them what they have learned to ensure this learning continues.

Pupils from Years 2, 3, 5 and 6 have taken part in computing and music workshops from 'Conductive Music' and the children have really enjoyed this.

More information will be coming out about the planned Christmas events soon.

Have a great weekend

Be Ready

England will be playing their first game in the World Cup on Monday 21st November at 1pm. To help cheer on the England team years 3-6 will be able to watch the game in the hall.

Children are to wear school uniform as normal and can bring in a small token of support ie:

England flag

Small face paint of a flag

The children look amazing in their Bright clothes today !

Here are a few pictures of some of the children
