An update from Mrs Murrell

It's been another busy week at LPPA this week.

On Remembrance Saturday, Miss Carlton took our deputy head boy and girl to The Knightswick Centre for the remembrance service. Then, on Remembrance Sunday, I met with our head boy and girl at The Paddocks for the Remembrance service. It was lovely to represent the school with our PLT. I was very proud of them.

The children across the academy have been busy doing their Autumn Term assessments this week. Year 6 showed lots of determination while completing their Mock SATs tests in the hall - well done Year 6.

We took part in Road Safety Week and the children learnt about how to keep themselves safe, especially during the darker, winter months. Reception took part in a Road Safety workshop and were very sensible and knowledgeable.

The PLT have been busy selling the 'Be Bright' merchandise on the KS2 playground this week. We hope you've bought something to clip to your coat and bag.

Our teachers met with teachers from other Canvey schools on Monday to moderate writing across the island. It was lovely to talk about the children's achievements in this subject and share best practice.

Please be reminded that 'Christmas Crafts Week' commences w/b 4th December. Parents and Carers are invited to this. I will be sending out a 'Christmas Agenda' on Monday.

I am very proud of our school community and I'm very grateful to have such hard working staff and children.

Thank you for your continued support.

As always, have a lovely weekend with your families.
