Message from Mrs Travi

World Book Day was a huge success this week with pupils and staff dressed up as their favourite book character. I am sure you agree the staff look wonderful dressed in our 'Neverland meets Wonderland' theme —see photo below.

Please can I remind all parents/guardians to hear their children read five times per week. I am regularly checking home school diaries to ensure this is happening as reading is the key to success.

Also this week, Mr Thomas and I taught in KS2 on Wednesday, completing maths challenges and writing haunted house/character descriptions and all the pupils in the school were impeccably behaved. Please be mindful we have two more teacher strike days on 15th and 16th March.

We are asking our pupils to name our three SEN designated areas in the school (sensory room, sensory circuit room and Year 5 garden) - the school council will collect in the names and each class will vote on the most popular names for each of these areas.

Have a lovely weekend!
